To meet the needs of its clients involved in international transactions and operations, Chafter Raouadi Law Firm has built up a strategic alliance with independent foreign law firms which have been selected for the excellent quality of their services in several countries in North Africa, in the EU, North America, Southeastern Asia  and Middle East.

The Firm offers its clients a large choice of foreign collaborators with whom it works regularly and who share Chafter Raouadi’s values.

The firm is also member of several international networks and has participated to the elaboration of several reports for nonprofit organization about the investment climate in Tunisia.